

Terms of Use for SoberScan Effective Date: September 24th, 2025

1. Purpose of the App SoberScan is a screening tool that uses your device's camera to analyze eye movement and pupil response to help indicate possible impairment.

- It is not a medical test.
- It is not a legal determination of sobriety.
- It is intended to provide informational support only.

2. No Medical or Legal Advice - SoberScan does not diagnose, treat, or cure any condition.

- It does not replace professional medical advice or legally approved sobriety testing (such as breathalyzers).
- Always make safe and responsible decisions regardless of your app results.

3. Eligibility You must be at least 17 years old to use SoberScan due to references to alcohol and substance use.

4. User Responsibilities By using SoberScan, you agree:

- To use the app only for personal, lawful purposes.
- Not to use the app while operating a vehicle or machinery.
- To acknowledge that results may be inaccurate under certain conditions (poor lighting, improper device handling, etc.).

5. Privacy SoberScan does not collect or transmit personal data. See our Privacy Policy at <https://soberscan.app/privacy>.

6. Disclaimer of Warranties SoberScan is provided "as is," without warranties of any kind.

We do not guarantee the accuracy, reliability, or completeness of results.
Use of the app is at your own risk.

7. Limitation of Liability To the fullest extent permitted by law:

- We are not liable for damages, injuries, accidents, or losses resulting from the use or reliance on SoberScan.
- You are solely responsible for your decisions and actions.

8. Updates and Changes We may update these Terms from time to time. Changes will be posted at: <https://soberscan.app/terms>
